The Young People's Philharmonic is a full symphony orchestra for young musicians in junior and senior high school. It is a comprehensive program of training in symphonic performance.

The Junior String Philharmonic is a string orchestra for young string players, grades 5 through 9.

Both groups rehearse on Tuesday evenings from 6:15 pm to 8:30 pm at the First Presbyterian Church of Bethlehem at 2344 Center Street.

The Young People's Philharmonics season is now in the planning stages. We are anticipating a very exciting year which will include...

- Formal December Concert
- A school performance in the fall and/or spring
- Formal Spring Concert

The Junior String Philharmonics season will include...

- Formal December Concert
- A school performance in the fall and/or spring
- Formal Spring Concert

AUDITIONS for the Young People's Philharmonic and the Junior String Philharmonic will be held on:

April 27, 30 & May 1, 8, 9, 10, 2018

All students currently in 4th through 11th grade are eligible to apply. The auditions will be held at First Presbyterian Church on Center Street in Bethlehem. They last approximately ten minutes each. You will be asked to play a prepared piece of your own choice, scales, and to sight-read music that is appropriate for your instrument.

Please fill out the application form and indicate when you will be available to audition. You will be notified as to the exact time of your audition.

Annual tuition is $525. For family members, each additional student in either orchestra will be $335. Fees are due at the time of your acceptance into the orchestra.
